

CHAPTER V - PEDESTRIANS RIGHTS AND DUTIES

SECTION I            RIGHT OF WAY

- A.    When traffic control signals are not in place or not in operation the driver of a vehicle shall yield the right of way, slowing down or stopping if need be to so yield, to a pedestrian

- B.    Whenever any vehicle has stopped at a marked crosswalk or at any intersection to permit a pedestrian to cross the roadway, it shall be unlawful for the driver of any other vehicle approaching from the rear to overtake and pass such stopped vehicle.

- C.    Every pedestrian crossing a roadway at any point other than within a marked or unmarked crosswalk shall yield the right of way to vehicles upon the roadway; however, this shall not relieve the driver of a vehicle from the duty to exercise due care of the safety of pedestrians.

- D.    Pedestrians, when using crosswalks shall move, whenever practicable, upon the right half of the crosswalks.

- E.    It shall be unlawful for any person to stand on a paved surface for the purpose of soliciting a ride from the operator of any private vehicle.

- F.    It shall be unlawful for the driver of any vehicle to drive between the vehicles comprising a funeral or other authorized procession while they are in motion, provided that the vehicles are conspicuously so designated, unless directed to do so by a Police Officer or other emergency official.

- G.    The driver of a vehicle emerging from an alley, driveway, or building shall stop such vehicle immediately prior to driving onto a sidewalk or onto the sidewalk area extending across any alleyway.

- H.    The driver of a vehicle shall not back or turn said vehicle so as to proceed in the opposite direction unless such movement can be made in safety and without backing or otherwise interfering with other traffic.

- I.    The driver of a vehicle shall not drive within any sidewalk area extending across the alleyway.
